Juris Corp's Co-Founder and Senior Partner Jayesh H commented: "The elevations to partner and counsel positions are a moment of pride. Their continued contribution and efforts have added great value to the Firm. Nurturing and promoting our people is central to our values along with enhancing client service. Infact, the dedication and determination with which each has performed has been well appreciated by our clients for our solution-oriented approach as a full-service law firm. This further solidifies the level of trust and reliability which has been bestowed by our clients over the years. As Ankit, Apurva, Dhruv, Saurabh and Sumitava rise to the next stage of their career, we are confident that they will take Juris Corp to greater heights by continuing to build our practice and strengthening the Firm values. Congratulations to all of them."

Further, the Firm promoted two of its fee earners to Principal Associates, while two fee earners made the jump to Senior Associates, namely:
